Vaughan Admits Taking Campaign Funds From Men Helped in Deals

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Harry H. Vaughan acknowledged today that he collected campaign money in 1946 from some of the business men he helped in dealings with the government.

He said he got $2,000 or $3,000 from race track owner William Helis, who sought Vaughan's aid in 1948 in getting a permit for scare building material for the Tanforan race track at San Bruno, Calif.

And, Vaughan said, he "probably" got $2,000 from John Maragon, Washington man-about-town and one-time employe of a Chicago perfume company.

Vaughan, the president's military aide, was in the witness chair of the Senate investigations subcommittee.

Nothing Improper

Flatly and repeatedly, he denied that there was anything improper in anything he did for any business man—or that he ever received any fee, gift or favor in return for his aid.

Senator McCarthy (R.-Wis.) said at one point that he felt that "Vaughan did not personally profit financially" from his assistance to persons who have figured in the inquiry.

But he demanded that Vaughan produce for the committee the names of all persons from whom he received money for campaign purposes, the exact amounts and the disposition of the money.

Vaughan had testified that he thought the Maragon and Helis contributions had gone to the Missouri Democratic campaign.

Will Return

He was still being questioned about this when Chairman Hoey (D.-N.C.) ordered a recess until 9 a.m. (EST) Wednesday. Vaughan will return to the witness chair then.

The White House army aide told Senate investigators that the things he did were done without the knowledge of President Truman.

He did not mention them to the President, he said, because "I didn't think it was necessary."

Vaughan came in for rugged questioning.

Much of it revolved about his relations with John Maragon, the mysterious man-about-Washington who stood on his constitutional rights and refused to tell the committee last week about his financial affairs. An accountant has testified that Maragon banked $119,000 during a five-year period in which he had said his income was about $30,000.

Not Authorized

Vaughan acknowledged he had been helpful to Maragon from time to time, but swore he had never authorized Maragon to "represent, or speak, for me or the White House."

Orange County Water Project Only Salvage Job; Won't Hurt Level

Orange County claimed today that they are not planning to take any water which will harm the water level of Riverside and San Bernardino counties.

At the meeting in Ontario City Hall today, at 2 p. m., the representatives of Orange County said before a council chamber packed with representatives from three counties and several water companies, that "our only project is salvage."

In a statement read by Ross A. Shafer, chairman of the Orange County special committee, the delegation declared that:

"Contrary to the statement and implications contained in the letters of protestants and of the two counties, there is water over and above that used and available to Chino Basin proprietors, wasting into the air from the bottom of the retarding basin in Santa Ana River.

"This water is available for salvage and appropriation by any reasonable method of recovery and diversion to those having access to it.

"This water is subject to wastage and only this water is sought and claimable under the Orange County application and salvage works."

At 2 this afternoon the tri-county confab, on Orange county's plan to tap the Prado water supply for 10,000 acre feet a year, got under way with San Bernardino, Orange and Riverside counties seated around city hall tables.

Representatives from the cities of Ontario, Upland, Claremont, Pomona and Chino were sitting in, according to Frank H. Mogle, chairman of the San Bernardino county board of supervisors.

Well Represented

West End water companies were well represented at the meeting.

Orange County delegates began presenting their side of the controversy to the meeting called at their request.

This afternoon's session is expected to develop into a full scale civil war with all the Chino basin counties and cities having their say as well as listening to the Orange county delegates explain.

New Teacher Arrives Here From England

Edison School's new sixth grade teacher arrived in Ontario yesterday afternoon, from Spofforth, York County, England.

Nanette Cook received her first glimpse of Ontario yesterday when she alighted from the Golden State Limited to spend one year teaching in America. Miss Cook exchanges places with Emma Konnefny from Edison School who goes right into Miss Cook's teaching job in Spofforth.

The English teacher arrived in New York on August 18 with 90 other exchange teachers. They went to Washington, D. C., for a reception for British exchange teachers and then split up to journey to their new jobs in every section of the United States.

Miss Cook is a graduate of St. Hild's College, Durham, England.

Upland Chamber Manager Urges Members To Vote

Ballots will be accepted if postmarked not later than tomorrow, August 31, according to chamber Manager James V. Latimer.

Chamber Forms Defense Fund For Law Suit

The Ontario Chamber of Commerce is forming a defense fund to meet expenses in its two law suits.

Announcement of formation of the fund was made this morning in a letter to chamber members from chamber President A. R. Gemmel.

Gemmel's letter said that a retainer will be paid immediately to the chamber's attorneys in the suit brought against the chamber by an employe of the Daily Report.

Give Attention

Gemmel asked that "each member give the matter immediate attention. This is a matter of principle. We feel that we are being unjustly persecuted."

Gemmel explained that the chamber is faced, "through no fault of our own, with the necessity of defending ourselves in a lawsuit brought by a 'taxpayer' in the employ of the Daily Report.

"Your board of directors have carried on the work of the chamber of commerce with enthusiasm and in good faith. We have followed the custom which has been accepted as proper for many years, not only locally but in a majority of cities throughout California and the United States.

Affect Many Groups

"The legality of the handling of public funds and the occupancy of the city hall is now being questioned. A decision in this respect will affect practically every chamber of commerce in the state. There has been no wrong done, but only good for the entire community, and the present arrangement is merely a convenient way of giving community service."

$2 Billion California Water Program Goes To Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Interior Krug presented to congress today a $2,000,000,000 program for water resource development of California's central valley basin.

President Truman indorsed a controversial part of the plan which would make interior's reclamation bureau the major construction agency—and would virtually throw the army corps of engineers out of the central valley.

The work of the army engineers would be limited to single-purpose flood control or navigation projects.

Truman said more information on engineering and economic feasibility is necessary to justify approval of the whole as a comprehensive valley plan.

No Objection

The President told Krug there would be no objection to sending the project report to congress "provided it is made clear that, aside from the authorizations for the projects specified, the other project proposed are to be considered as an inventory of possible future work . . ."

The army engineers currently have authority to build nine dams in the central valley basin.

Krug recommended, and President Truman concurred, that the authority for three or four be transferred to the reclamation bureau, and that the engineers go ahead and build five dams, turning them over to reclamation on completion.

He proposed that the ninth army project be cancelled.

The reclamation bureau already has built, or has near completion, in the basin, three large dams—Shasta and Keswick, on the Sacramento river, and Friant, on the San Joaquin.

Under the proposal it would also build these dams now assigned to the army engineers, but not yet under construction:

New Melones, on the Stanislaus river, Black Butte, on Stony Creek and New Hogan, on the Calaveras river.

Fresh Soviet Slap At Tito

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Russia, in a new note to Belgrade, accused Premier Marshal Tito's Yugoslavia today of working "only on the instructions of its western masters."

The note was broadcast by the Moscow radio and recorded in London by the Soviet monitor. It was the eighth in a series of increasingly bitter exchanges between the two feuding communist countries.

The Moscow note denied Yugoslav charges, made Aug. 20, that the Kremlin had double crossed Yugoslavia by abandoning Yugoslav claims to Austrian territory at last June's conference of the Big Four foreign ministers in Paris.

Fresh Scandals

The Russians said Yugoslavia's Aug. 20 note was "an accumulation of fresh scandals and slanderous distortions calculated as masking its (Yugoslavia's) own double dealing policy and deceiving the people of Yugoslavia.

Moscow said its note was sent "not to convince the Yugoslav government, which has long been living without convictions and works only on the instructions of its western masters, but in order to unmask it and help the peoples of Yugoslavia to see the true face of the present Yugoslav government."

The Soviet note did not elaborate on the term "western masters." However, the Soviet press and radio frequently has accused Tito of being "a tool of the western imperialists" — the term the communists employ in designating the United States, Britain and other western powers.

A full quorum is expected with Commission Secretary Richard G. Manley back in town after his vacation.

James Roosevelt Criticizes Warren

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—James Roosevelt sharply criticized Governor Warren in an address here last night. He left unanswered the question whether he would become a Democratic candidate for the governorship.

Roosevelt told a political meeting that Warren had evaded responsibility on the old-age pension question. He challenged him to take a public stand on the proposed repeal of the present law at the November special election.

Regarding his own stand on the issue, Roosevelt told interviewers: "It's not my responsibility to guide the voters."

Visits Brothers; Ends Up in Army

Brother Pete came from Ohio to visit Brother Steve in Ontario and then it happened.

The next thing poor Pete knew he was on his way to Texas all signed and sealed, and being delivered to Uncle Sam's Lackland Air Force Base.

Fast talking M/Sgt. Steve Mann went to work on visiting Brother Pete and the rest is now history.

"My brother is a fine airman," M/Sgt. Steve Mann, local Army and Air Force recruiter, insisted today.

Tries Sales Talk

When Steve learned that Pete had been in the National Guard back in Canton, Ohio, where he worked in a steel mill, he tried his sales talks out on Pete.

Pete heard about the good pay, the rapid promotions, and the 30 days' vacations with pay each year. He began to think he lived in an atmosphere of "free food and clothing, good quarters, educational benefits, and the chance to get ahead."

Got Interested

Finally he began to get interested, and the rest of the story sounds like this:

"My brother enlisted for the Air Force, and is on his way to Lackland Air Force Base in Texas. He's going to apply for mechanical work when he finishes basic training, and later will try for aviation cadet pilot training."

M/Sgt. Mann, himself, is a good example of Air Force advantages and benefits. Enlisting in the army in 1941, he attended Officer Candidate School in 1943 and became a second lieutenant.

He spent time overseas with the 20th Air Force in the Pacific. When he returned to the States, he married a girl from Corona where they live now.

He re-enlisted in the army in 1946, giving up his commission as first lieutenant for a master sergeancy in the Air Force.

"Pete and I are both members of a great team," M/Sgt. Mann said. "The team for national security."

Tito Can Get U. S. Loan if He Stays and Lives Long Enough

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia is considered virtually a cinch to get an American government loan—provided he stays alive and independent from Moscow.

Top government officials said Secretary of State Acheson's strong support for Yugoslavia's application clearly foreshadows a favorable verdict.

This is the first time the Yugoslav government has turned to the United States government for a direct loan since Tito defied Moscow's orders some 15 months ago and split from the Russian bloc in western Europe. Now that bloc seeks to strangle Tito economically.

Urging Approval

Acheson and Ambassador Cavendish Cannon in Belgrade are reported vigorously urging the Export-Import Bank to approve Tito's bid quickly.

The Yugoslav dictator is said to be in need of speedy economic help.

The Yugoslav government was disclosed last night to have applied formally to the bank for a credit of around $25,000,000.

needed to buy American machinery for its copper, lead and zinc mines.

Can't Wait

Tito is reported to have turned to the bank, an American government agency, because he feels he cannot wait possibly six months for a credit from the International Bank.

Export-Import Bank officials said a decision should be forthcoming shortly.

Yugoslavia would be able to pay for the credit, government officials said, by increasing shipments of strategic copper, lead, zinc and chrome ore to the United States.

Dr. Samuel Hughes and Rena Parr Are Wed in North Glendale Church

Of wide interest in the community is the marriage of Miss Rena Parr of Glendale and Dr. Samuel Hughes of Glendale, former pastor of the Upland Methodist church, which was solemnized Monday evening in the North Glendale Methodist church.

Officiating at the 7:30 o'clock service was the pastor, Dr. Ezra Ellis, who was assisted by two brothers of the bridegroom, the Rev. Alfred Hughes of Glendale, and the Rev. James Hughes of West Los Angeles.

The bride chose for her wedding costume a smart red suit, with gray hat and accessories, complemented with an orchid corsage.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Everett C. Whittenberg, who wore a gray suit and gray hat, with gray accessories, accented by an orchid corsage.

Wilmont Hughes of Santa Barbara served his brother as best man.

Decorating the church chancel were large bouquets of red rosebuds, flanked by branched candelabra, one tied with red ribbons and the other with white ribbons. Preceding the ceremony, Ed Sanders, soloist, sang several bridal selections. The traditional wedding marches were played by the organist.

Following the nuptial rites, a reception was given the bride and bridegroom in one of the parlors of the church, where friends of the couple offered their congratulations and good wishes.

FINE FEATHERS—Feathered and fancy, these Jack McConnell creations bow in fall. At top, pheasant feathers hug the head in an Egyptian-style turban. At bottom, a red velvet profile cloche is crowned with dove-gray feathers and "wings" that follow the line of the hat.

Tomorrow Teenagers Will Wear

—The little velvet cap that resembles a baby's cap at the back and at the front too with its little ruffled edge. It has a sophisticated touch though in a sprinkling of sequins that cover all but the ruffled edge.

—dressy black velvet accessories. Little caps, handbags and belts or cummerbunds add tricky new touches to the fall costume.

—the scarf coat. In new fancy tweed, it has a matching scarf that ties under its little collar or is looped over one shoulder with one end in the back and the other in the front.

—the wide, wide box-shape bag, a young interpretation of the horizontal theme in handbags. Shiny black satin makes an attractive bag with single handle and smart fitted interoir.

—crepe sole shoes in leather and suede. Look for them in natural and copper tones that repeat the new colors in your wardrobe.

—the short coat with novelty lining. Finger-tip boxy coats are snug and warm in fleecy fabrics with alpaca lining.

Velveteen Is A Favorite For Daytime Or Dates

ACCENT ON FABRIC—Clever manipulation of interesting fabric results in an exciting after-dark dress for early fall, designed by Larry Aldrich. Concentrating on simplicity of line, the designer achieves handsome effects with satin and plisse taffeta striped fabric.

The soft touch of velvet and velveteen is back for those who have missed it through the past few years. There's scarcely enough of the fabric to fill the demand but there is an ample supply for every girl to have one or two pieces or costumes in her wardrobe, and these can be bought in colors that will fit into whatever color scheme she has selected for fall.

Velveteen is a wonderful fabric because it can be worn 'round the clock. A jumper of dark-toned velveteen will be a good school or office costume when it is teamed with a striped cotton blouse or a lightweight sweater or jersey blouse. That same jumper may be dressed up later in the day by changing to a crepe or sheer blouse, and for dancing it may be worn without a blouse if the armholes are snug and shoulders wide and if the neckline is not too low.

Velveteen suits are top choice in many college and career wardrobes. They're wearable through the day and they, like the jumper, may be dressed up for evening with a more formal blouse. The skirt goes well with separate blouses or sweaters and the jacket may be worn over a dress in harmonizing or contrasting color to make a daytime or date-time ensemble. A dressier jacket or one of the little flyaway shorties may be used as a casual evening wrap in the spring and fall.

Many designers are using velveteen in separates that add up to suits. One of these is Tilly Schanzer, well-known for her cleverly styled separates at modest prices. She uses velveteen in several colors with a deep gray the most popular because it goes with almost any tone from gold to navy. Skirts are full or slim, as a girl prefers, and jackets come in various styles to suit different figures and needs.

IT'S EVERYBODY'S CHIP

We have been accused of "carrying a chip on our shoulder."

According to our accusers, we are "out to get somebody" or "we are looking for a fight."

Frankly we admit we are "carrying a chip."

And it is a big one.

But it's everybody's chip.

We have reached over the shoulders of our readers, the voters of Upland and Ontario, and taken the chips off of their already heavily burdened shoulders.

It might surprise the powers-that-be to find out that we aren't the ONLY ones interested in city affairs, although we seem to be making the most noise.

Most of the beefs which we put in print reach us from our readers by telephone, mail, and in person.

All we do is pass them on.

For example what seems to be our continuous beef with the Upland city council over appointments to the planning commission.

We aren't needling the mayor to make these appointments just to be needling.

First of all there is the realty board. They have been clamoring for months to "get somebody to do something." Of course they have their own axe to grind. They want a realtor on the board.

Then secondly there are the people who turned up at the last planning commission meeting to be faced with a lack of a quorum.

They just want somebody to listen to their stories.

That's just one of the chips. There are many more.

No, we aren't trying to lift the faces of Upland and Ontario.

We aren't even trying to pick a fight.

But if our critics believe that by a little constructive criticism, we are "carrying a chip . . . ."

Then let the chips fall where they may.

FOR HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — When James Keller says he's out to change the world, a lot of people listen.

For one thing, he's a big quietly persuasive Catholic priest with a no-nonsense air about him. He resembles his friend Spencer Tracy.

For another thing, he's a best-selling author who has banded more than 100,000 Catholic, Protestants and Jews into a movement called the Christophers.

Their aim, in their own words: to change the world.

"The U. S.," Father Keller says "is being undermined by a fanatical group of men and women who hate God and sneer at the declaration of Independence, with its stress on our God-given rights.

"We want to stop this.

"And we hope to do it by putting men and women of good will into jobs where they can be a force for good and order.

* * *

"There has been too much shouting against 'subversives.'

"The time is here for action—for offering something better than the subversives can offer."

The Christophers are in the news on several fronts:

A novel which won the $15,000 first prize in their literary contest has just been published. Its title is "Call it Treason." The author, George Howe, is a Protestant.

The Christophers are trying to establish training schools in all parts of the country, to guide "men and women of good will" into key jobs where they can make their influence felt.

And Father Keller himself is reading final proofs on a new book, "Three Minutes a Day," to be published by Doubleday in October. His last book, "You Can Change the World," sold 220,000 copies.

* * *

I went to see Father Keller because I had been hearing a good deal about misunderstanding and bad feeling among religious groups, and I wanted to know if there was another side to the story.

The man in the Roman collar is sure that there is.

"The Christophers," he said, "are people of all faiths. Some have no particular faith.

"We're all sorts of people — housewives, actors, employers, union officials . . .

"We concentrate on a few fields — teaching, government work, labor-management, and the spreading of ideas by radio, movies, publishing and so on.

"Why? Because that's where subversives are most active.

"By 'subversives' we don't mean Communists alone. We mean those who are against what normal, decent Americans are for. Such things as divine truth and human integrity.

* * *

"Probably not more than one American in 100 is working against these things. But that adds up to more than 1,000,000 persons. It means that we'll need more than 1,000,000 Christophers."

I asked a couple of questions that a Protestant friend of mine had suggested: is there opposition to the Christophers because their founder is a priest? Any suspicion that its aims are sectarian?

Father Keller smiled. "Why don't you look over some of our correspondence?" he said.

So I did. There were letters of support from Catholics; from a Methodist Ministerial student in Georgetown, Texas; from an Episcopal rector in Beverly Hills, Calif. From a Jewish television executive in Chicago.

I read the letters and others like them.

"Father," I asked, "are you going to get a million Christophers? Are they really going to change the world?"

"With God's help," said Father Keller promptly, "yes."

I Do Not Fear My Enemies--

Robert Ruark

NEW YORK—There is a fellow who lives way down yonder in New Orleans, a lad by the name of Robert Tallant. Mr. Tallant is a book author. His books do not sell good. They sell like maybe 5000, 7000 10,000 copies, which is a poor return on the energy it takes to write a book, even a bad one.

Mr. Tallant has written three that I have read—"Mrs. Candy and Saturday Night." "Angel in the Wardrobe,' and "Mr. Preen's Salon." They are all pretty good books, if what you want in a book is no lecture or sermons, no messages and no tracts. Mr. Tallant deals lightly in modern people—N-Awlins-type people—and N'-Awlins-type people are apt to be as interesting as any people there are.

Now here is a guy gives you all the New Orleans atmosphere and the New Orleans feeling, and he gives you good dialogue and some sharp, clean satire and a lot of sound and smell, which is supposed to be good book-writing. But the volumes do not cause riots at the book stalls. I guess if Mr. Tallant is not eating indepently of his literaray endeavor he is apt to be very hungry indeed.

* * *

Working in the same town is Mr. Harnett Kane and Miss Frances Parkinson Keyes, both of whom sell 9,000,000 copies of everything they write. Miss Keyes' last avalanche was a piece of competent hokum called "Dinner at Antoin's" and was written stictly for matrons. Mr. Kane's last was one of those bosomy historicals, full of crinoline and sideburns, and I guess the customers still love it.

What I do not get is why the stylized hokum will sell, and the historicals will sell and the loud ones with the big messages will sell, but a guy writing it pretty clean and quiet with his humor can't seem to find a customer. Mr. Tallant has poked more incisive fun at the modern old south than anybody I know but I guess nobody but me and his editors want to read it.

* * *

There seems to be some sort of reader revulsion today against satire, unless it is laid on in rough chunks with a steam-shovel, and plainly marked "joke" at all the intersections. Also I guess books have got to be physically thick to sell heavily, on the premise that anything long is a bargain.

I never met this Tallant fellow, nor do I owe him any money, but I thought I would bring him up as perhaps a fresh breeze in a business that has practically scared me away from reading. Mr. Tallant handles his characters in a nice easy manner, and if he expouses some hidden cause or is practicing a subtle literary voodoo I have not been able to discover it in three volumes.

* * *

This doubtless betrays some shocking trivilaity of soul and conscience, but I believe I am all caught up on neurotic war books weighing eight pounds each, and if one more man writes one more weighty novel about civil liberties being fractured I will be tempted to go out and fracture a couple myself, just to let off steam.

This mood applies to all historical novels, all books pertaining to doom, all inside revelations of the Roosevelt regime and all shortcuts to heaven as portrayed by the professionals who use religion as an author's gimmick.

Mr. Tallant is no voltaire, and maybe he isn't even up to Evelyn Waugh, but he has some qualities I consider fine. He did not personally win the war, he is not outraged at the military caste system, but he did not formulate Mr. Roosevelt's foreign policy and he is not dead set against sin. He has never retreated to the woods to raise chickens, and has not yet discovered Communism as a literary bonanza. If these be frail talents, just consider me a man of frail tastes who is tired of being hit over the head with the awfulness of the present or forced to retreat to the pantaletted past for escape.

Valuation Doubles

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's assessed valuation now totals $13,250,000,000, said Board of Equalization Member James H. Quinn today.

During 1948, he said in a news release, the 4,900 cities, counties, school district and other local taxing agencies levied taxes and special assessments totaling more than $677,000,000. That figure is more than twice the total of the early war years.

Solution of Saturday's Puzzle

AP Newsfeatures 5-16

Dewitt Mackenzie

AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

One of the hottest pieces of current news out of Europe is the report reaching Washington that Stalin's hold on the Red satellite states has been badly shaken by Moscow's row with Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

John M. Hightower, Associated Press diplomatic expert in Washington, says this information is contained in highly responsible reports from eastern Europe. These reports are expected to play an important part in the forthcoming meetings in the American capital among Secretary of State Acheson, British Foreign Secretary Bevin and French Foreign Minister Schuman.

* * *

"Western diplomats," says Hightower, "foresee in these meetings a three-power review of the grand strategy of the cold war with Russia, followed by a determined effort to devise new moves against the Kremlin."

The Yugoslav dictator's defiance, in refusing to surrender his country's sovereignty to Moscow, has placed Russia in the difficult position of having to make him eat crow—and quickly—unless she is to sustain a disastrous loss of face among the satellites. But how to get at the recalcitrant and imperturbable Tito, who refuses to budge from his position?

Of course, mighty Russia could handle Yugoslavia by force handily enough, if there weren't outside interference. But there might be outside interference. There might be another world war going full tilt overnight.

* * *

Troop movements in neighboring Bulgaria and Romania have led to speculation that war might be developing between them and Yugoslavia. That could be, but here again Moscow would be running a great risk in letting such a conflict develop, because it could grow into world conflict.

That leaves the Muscovites with the alternatives of trying to smash Tito economically, or of inspiring a revolt against him among his own people.

The economic approach already has been tried without the desired success. The unexpected result was that Tito promptly turned to the West for aid—and got it.

That seems to reduce the possibilities to the one of inspiring within Yugoslavia revolt which might be assisted surreptitiously by neighboring Red satellites. Observers recognize that this may be what Russia is maneuvering for now.

Heads Power Plant

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A University of California graduate today was named head of California's largest power producing plants—Shasta and Keswick dams.

He is George D. Atkinson, formerly an engineer at Shasta Dam, and onetime resident of Compton.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Robert Walker, a new man since his recent mental treatment, is eager for a shot at directing movies.

"I feel that I'm marking time now," he said on the "Please Believe Me" set. "Acting is fine; it's good training. But you get tired of other people telling you what to do.

"Directing is the creative end of this business. I probably won't get a chance to do it until my contract is up in three years, but I aim to get into it as soon as I can."

Walker says he won't give up acting altogether. He offered this observation on his profession: "An actor isn't just born, or just made; he's both. An actor has to be a bit neurotic. A neurosis gives him the sensitivity to people and events that is necessary to imitate them."

Elizabeth Taylor reports her finance, William Pauley Jr., will be here in a couple of weeks, and that should quell the separation rumors. The Florida lad expects to be here a month.

"I haven't planned any parties for him," Liz said on "The Big Hangover" set. "We have so little time together, we want to spend it alone, getting to know each other. You don't really act like yourself at parties."

The young beauty still has no marriage date. She plans to continue her career after marriage—and have two or three kids, too.

Edgar Bergen is having the head of his new dummy made in New York, the body in California. She'll be a five-footer . . . Vaudeville returns to the local Orpheum tomorrow—hooray! . . . Frankie Laine's "Lucky Old Sun" disc is skyrocketing.

* * *

Art Linkletter says he'll wait for television. He agrees with Rudy Vallee: Why play to an audience when only the first two rows are filled . . . Arthur Lake says a TV deal is cooking for "Blondie." He's back to one Blondie (Penny Singleton in films) now that her air show with Ann Rutherford has been dropped.

Rosalind Russell figures mourning doesn't become her these days. She tells me she won't even consider dramas . . . Ray Milland off to fish at Sun Valley after "Woman of Distinction." Paramount has promised him a crack at directing, which he admits is insurance against old age.

Ann Blyth turned 21, but does not feel different. It doesn't mean a thing to her career, "because I've played practically everything already" . . . Howard Keel, whose film debut was postponed by the Judy Garland ruckus on "Annie Get Your Gun," is testing for "Running of the Tide."

Larry Parks is hunting for a script that will take him away from the Jolson type. Meanwhile, he's playing dates with Betty Garrett . . . And now I am kissing this typewriter and the starlets goodby. The rest of the AP Hollywood staff, plus some guest stars, will keep you informed during my vacation.

Capsule Review: "Sword In the Desert" (U.-I.) is a timely melodrama about the late war in Palestine. The film takes the Jewish side against the British. Good acting, convincing backgrounds (filmed in California) and much action help to offset the cloudy politics. Stars: Dana Andrews, Marta Toren, Stephen McNally.

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is a brief explanation of what has happened and why in the five-percenter case.

That case reaches a peak tomorrow when Major General Harry H. Vaughan, military aide to President Truman, testifies at a public senate committee hearing.

Witnesses at the hearings have said he used his White House position to get special favors for firms and individuals in dealing with the government.

No one has accused him of breaking any law or receiving any fee for anything he did. He has been pictured so far as a "Mr. Fixit."

Nor has anyone suggested that President Truman knew anything about Vaughan's activites in behalf of friends or firms.

This is how the story came about.

* * *

Big corporations have large Washington staffs to keep them informed of dealings with the government, particularly about getting government contracts.

Small businessmen can't afford such staffs. Because of the great complexity of government they have difficulty in knowing whom to see or what to do when they want contracts.

So many of them have to depend on men who know their way around Washington, and for a fee, such as five-percent, guide them in getting contracts.

But—there's a difference between five percenters who act as guides and clearers-of-red-tape and those who charge such a fee on the grounds that they can help a businessman get a contract through "influence."

* * *

On June 21 the New York Herald-Tribune published a story given it by Paul Grindle, former Herald-Tribune reported but now head of a furniture manufacturing company in Farmingham Mass.

He said he met James V. Hunt, former army officer and former government employe, who calls himself a "management counselor." Grindle says Hunt told him he has "only one thing to sell and that is influence." (Hunt denies he said it.)

Grindle said Hunt told him his influence came from his close friendship with Vaughan, his "dearest friend," and that he, Hunt, was a welcome guest at the White House.

Grindle said he signed a contract with Hunt, agreeing to give Hunt a fee for helping him get government contracts. With the publication of the story, the senate investigation began.

Hunt himself hasn't testified at any public hearings. His doctors have said he's too ill to do that for at least another month.

West Coast Is Best Market For Your Citrus

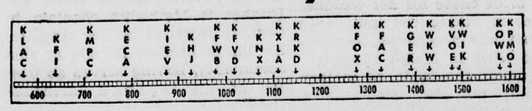

In vitality, richness and growth, the outlook for this area is exceptionally favorable. The West Coast will contribute a large share in raising our national living standards 25 per cent by 1960.

This optimistic opinion was expressed here last night by Dr. Vergil D. Reed, associate director of research for the J. Walter Thompson Company, advertising service. He visited Redlands as guest of Mutual Orange Distributors and spoke to the personnel of M.O.D. and Real Gold Citrus Products sales staffs.

In citrus as well as general commodities, "the West Coast is your best market. This tri-state area now has a population greater than Canada and a much higher purchasing power," said Dr. Reed, who served during the war as head of statistics for the War Production Board.

The visiting executive today addressed a combined meeting of the Advertising Club of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Sales Executive Club. In 1936, Dr. Reed served as assistant director of the business census.

Bipartisan Cut Fails in Senate

WASHINGTON (UP)—A drive by a bipartisan senate economy bloc to force President Truman to cut current federal spending by $2,000,000,000 a year was stopped dead yesterday.

With 19 senators absent on the showdown, the bloc failed by three votes to muster the two-thirds majority necessary to put over its scheme. The plan was to tack the budget balancing proposals as veto-proof rider on the $14,790,380,478 armed forces money bill.

The chamber then passed the bill by voice vote exactly as it came from the senate appropriations committee. The committee cut $1,118,736,332 from the amount voted by the house, most of it representing a cutback in the air force.

LAST MONEY BILL

The measure was the last of the 11 regular appropriation bills for fiscal 1950 awaiting senate action, with the fiscal year already nearly two months old, three major money bills are still locked up in senate-house conference committees. The defense bill also must go to such a committee for compromise.

New Time for Film Feature on KNBH

Edward Morley, star of the current Broadway play "Edward My Son," and Emlyn Williams will star in the KNBH feature film, "You Will Remember," Thursday, day, September 1, when the telecast moves to a new time on Channel 4, 9:15 p.m. The films were previously seen at 8:30.

Plan Demonstration of Hand-Block Prints

Selika, organist-pianist, will be a guest on KNBH's "Designed for Women" telecast Thursday, September 1 (Chanel 4 8 p.m.) She will play one of her own compositions, "Voodoo Drums."

Also guesting with editor Lee Hogan on Thursday's show will be Gerald Bobyn of Talent, Inc., who will show viewers how easily they may individualize their homes and clothes through the use of hand block designs on drapes and clothes. Bobyn will demonstrate the technique of cutting stencils to put the designs on material.

As the cooking feature of the week, Miss Hogan will have the head chef from the Tail of the Cock, who will reveal to the television audience one of his secret recipes which may be prepared by viewers with little trouble.

It is not unusual for a sailfish to leap across 40 feet of water.

SPORTS

THE SPORTLIGHT

Grantland Rice

NEW YORK—Through the next two weeks the U. S. will spend some time in two international tests at golf and tennis.

British golfers, headed by Ronnie White, have their last chance in the National Amateur to pick up something after their recent Walker Cup debacle where they were outclassed with a population of some 35,000,000 hooking up with 150,000,000. And the 150,000,000 not only play 20 times as much competitive golf, but also use looser rules connected with amateurism. There were three ex-pros on the 1949 Walker Cup squad, plus two or three whose career is largely golf.

The British have no chance at all in these Walker Cup matches. They take the worst of it from every direction. They are not only badly outnumbered but their economic condition allows little golf. Not a Scotsman was available for their 1949 team. Odds against their churning up much dust in this week's championship at Rochester are heavy. But they may slip through a surprise.

* * *

They are not any worse off than Willie Turnesa, the defending champion, who has been looking for a lost drive. The duffer isn't the only one who suddenly discovers he has lost some valuable stroke.

This 1949 amateur will be a cockeyed stampede. Frank Stranahan has never won this title. The Toledo entry is long overdue. It's tough to keep plowing through those 18-hole death marches.

In the National Singles tennis championships there is more than a mild threat from many foreign contestants in addition to the individual party between Ted Schoeder and Pancho Gonzales.

Schroeder, seeded ahead of Gonzales, has been rated next to Jack Kramer ever since Kramer turned in the direction of important cash. He has beaten Gonzales 4 out of 5 times in the last year.

But Schroeder hasn't played too much tennis. Gonzales has become what Bill Tilden once called "tournament tough," the most important factor among the high-ranking tennis players. So there is not only the duel between the U. S. and several fine foreign players in this 1949 championship, but also the very keen argument between Schroeder and Gonzales.

The important point is that the United States, with its overpowering margin in population and ever possible advantage, should never be beaten by Great Britain or Australia in any team-play sport. For example, in the Davis Cup matches, the U. S. is far behind what the count should be by now.

Up to 1949 the U. S. had won 15 Davis Cup matches, Australia 7. Yet Australia was outnumbered by at least 18 to 1 in population.

It would be rather nice to see the British or the Australians shove aside a few of these incredible odds. But I don't think they can.

One of the most vital questions that sport faces today is this—what are we going to do with the sun?

A big part of baseball is now played at night. Golden days are overlooked, one after another, as the lights are turned on. Can you imagine artificial lighting compared with the sun? Now we understand that football and racing are to move under the archlights, leaving the shining sun flat on its burning back.

Beyond this we are told that within a few years there will be no sunlight contests of any sort—that every competition of any note or any interest will be played under the artificial spray of the archlights—the producers of arthritis and lung trouble—illumination that lacks all the healing qualities of sunlight and health.

The answer, of course, is simple. It all gets back to the matter of the dollar. Sport's outlook is bleak, for I have never seen anything lick the dollar.

Pomona Fair Preparing For Racing Season

Formal approval of stall applications for the Los Angeles County Fair race meeting from Sept. 16-Oct. 2 occupied Racing Secy. Herman Sharpe this week as he screened the merits of the more than 600 horses seeking entry.

One of the first okays went forth to Sportsman Rex C. Ellsworth, who will ship a nine-horse string, headed by the stakes star, Roman In, here immediately following the close of the Del Mar meeting Sept. 10.

Accompanying Roman In will be such Ellsworth-bred horses as Go Silver, Grey Spook, Airing, Thrifty Miss, Owing, Red Stripe, My Style, and My Rainbow. Nearly all are by that swift sprinter of yesteryear, Arigotal, top Ellsworth stallion.

The welcome sign also went out this week to Neil D. Campbell's Pagan Star, winner of the Governor's Handicap at the State Fair at Sacramento last fall, and since then the top handicap horse in Western Canada.

Campbell shipped Pagan Star to Del Mar several weeks ago where the 8-year-old is racing against the top horses at the San Diego County course by the sea.

By the time Sharpe completes his duties at Del Mar and switches headquarters to his office here, the stable area will be filling rapidly.

On the harness racing front, Racing Secy. Harry Hatch will have between 200 and 300 trotters and pacers here for their part in the daily programs. At the present time, Hatch is fulfilling the duties of racing secretary at the San Joaquin County Fair at Stockton. He will go with the harness racers at the State Fair at Sacramento, then come to Pomona.

This season's racing schedule calls for seven running races and three harness events each weekday, and an extra running race on Saturdays. Post time for the first race each day will be 1 p.m.

Olin Dutra to Help Mexico

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Olin Dutra has a new job—coordinator of golf for Mexico.

The former National open and PGA champion is giving up his post as pro at Hillcrest country club in order to take charge Oct. 1 of Mexico's new golf program.

Members of the U.S. Davis Cup team are all smiles at Forest Hills, N.Y., as they stand with trophy after retaining possession of it in 4 to 1 challenge round defeat of Australia. Reading from left are Billy Talbert, Ted Schroeder, Gardnar Mulloy and Pancho Gonzales.—AP Wirewhoto.

Ted Williams Tops Batters

CHICAGO (AP)—A familiar figure occupied a familiar spot in American league baseball today—Ted Williams, mighty Boston slugger, topped the batters for the fourth straight week.

Williams' .359, compiled from official figures through last Sunday's games, led runnerup George Kell of Detroit by 20 points. In a third place tie were Boston's Dom DiMaggio and Bob Dillinger, of St. Louis, each with .328.

Other leaders included: Dale Mitchell, Cleveland, .316; Cass Michaels, Chicago, .307; Roy Sievers, St. Louis, .307; Johnny Pesky, Boston, .306; Don Kolloway, Detroit, .305, and Vern Stephens, Boston, .302.

Williams also led the circuit in runs with 127 and in hits with 165. He shared home run honors with Stephens, each having clouted 34.

Collegiate Footballers Open Another March on Rose Bowl

By the Associated Press

Football practice in the Pacific Coast Conference opened amid the popping of photographers' flash bulbs and the hope that this may be the West Coast's year in the Rose Bowl.

Strictly on paper, the University of Southern California Trojans look like the class of the conference. Jeff Cravath had 82 gridders turn out yesterday at the opening session. With 25 lettermen among them, Jeff easily fielded a veteran first string for the cameramen. Of course, the big reason for USC's nomination for pre-season favorite is that 14-14 tie last year with mighty Notre Dame.

However, California and Oregon, co-titlists in 1948, must be considered. At Cal, Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf had 87 Huskies turn out, but at last report, he still was looking hard for another Jackie Jensen, fullback, turned pro baseballer.

Oregon Out

Oregon's Jim Aiken started off his 54 gridders with an opening day scrimmage. He, too, is doing some fancy looking—for another Norm Van Brocklin. He has ten regulars back and also Bill Fell, transfer from Compton, Calif., Junior College. The track star—he does the 100 in 9.6—is billed as the West's fastest halfback.

Coach Red Sanders, the ex-Vanderbilt mentor, greeted his 56 UCLA hands with the gloomy news that Les Steiner, three-letter guard, is quitting the game. He is staying in school but is working instead.

Stanford's undefeated 1948 frosh team, plus some topnotch junior college transfers, met Marchy Schwartz at Palo Alto. Also there was fullback Emery Mitchell, out last season with a knee injury.

Loaded for Action

New Coach LaVerne (Kip) Taylor of Oregon State also is loaded with returning lettermen. Of the 55 who turned out, 24 were letter-winners. He expects to scrimmage Wednesday.

Darkhorse of the conference is the University of Washington. Howie O'Dell's Huskies have fullback Hugh McElhenny this year. The speedy transfer from Compton J. C. is considered to be the prize rookie catch of the conference.

Coach Phil Sarboe of Washington State predicts his Cougars will field the best team in years. He sent his 60 candidates through the "gridders' mile" under a broiling sun.

New Montana Coach

Little is known of Montana and Idaho prospects, although the latter has 28 returning lettermen. Montana has a new coach—Ted Shipkey, formerly of the Los Angeles Dons' coaching staff. Dixie Howell wasted little time in getting his Idaho squad into his rugged conditioning program.

Elsewhere around the coast, Coach Len Casanova of Santa Clara said he would field a team with more experience than the last. He has 16 lettermen among his 55 hopefuls.

Dons Ready For Baltimore

With the pass crazy Baltimore Colts arriving Thursday for Friday night's opener with the Los Angeles Dons at the Coliseum, Coach Jimmy Phelan is working to rig a pass defense to stop the pitching of Y. A. Tittle and "Chuckin' Charlie" O'Rourke.

It was Tittle, the All-American Conference "Rookie of the year," who led Baltimore last season to their only win in four attempts over the Dons. The Colts came out on the long end of a 29 to 14 score at the Coliseum, but "Bootin' Ben" Agajanian evened the count when he booted a 25 yard field goal in the final seconds to give Los Angeles a 17-14 triumph in Baltimore.

Yelberton Abraham practically re-wrote the record book last year. He set an all-pro mark when only 9 of the 289 passes he pitched were intercepted. In Baltimore's final seven games, only one pass was pilfered. He tossed a record string of 115 passes, 68 completions before one ended up in the wrong hands.

Supper Club Evens Series

Frankie Meriscal was in tip-top form last night and as a result the San Bernardino Supper Clubbers took a 4-0 Shaughnessy playoff game from Bloomington at Perris Hill Park.

Before 1,678 spectators, Meriscal lowered the boom on his rival 16-year-old Floyd Bower to even up the playoffs series 2 apiece. Meriscal allowed only five spaced hits and his younger rival was touched for seven.

Fishing and Hunting

By CURTIS SAYRE

The State Wildlife Conservation board has shelled out more than $1,500,000 for projects aimed at giving California sportsmen more fish and game.

The board also gave its informal approval to a policy to bring much of the California north coast region under state operation as a public hunting and fishing area.

The largest slices in the allocations melon cut by the board were:

$375,000 for a quail habitat development program to be concentrated in southern California.

$241,500 for expansion of Crystal Lake Fish Hatchery (Shasta county).

$240,000 for expansion of Lake Tahoe fish hatchery.

$100,000 for a fish ladder at Daguerre Point Dam, north of Marysville in Yuba county.

With the approval of allocations today, the board has $1,193,350 remaining of the original $9,000,000 appropriation made in 1947 by the legislature for stocking California's streams, lakes and forests.

State Wildlife Consultant Seth Gordon told the board more than $40,000,000 worth of projects have been proposed by sportsmen groups.

He said that development of the coastal areas for public hunting and fishing should get pricrity or these facilities will be lost forever to the general public, because the areas are rapidly being taken over by private interests.

He said studies of the area between Eureka and the mouth of the Klamath in the north were being made by his office.

The board actually took a first step in this coastal program by approving an $8,000 expenditure to buy land on South Spit in Humboldt Bay for public duck hunting and surf fishing.

The trout hatchery programs at Tahoe and Crystal Lake, Gordon said, would produce as much as 1,700,000 more catchable trout to be planted in fishing waters annually.

The board also heard complaints about the duck problem in the state. The situation, it was told by farmers and sportsmen representatives, is that the ducks do not have enough food and are raiding farms.

Chaffey Panthers Begin Grid Practice Thursday

At 7 p.m. Thursday, Coach George Hobbs will start his second year as head football coach at Chaffey College. Hobbs will be on hand to oversee the issuing of equipment, and that the players have their physical check-ups.

Coach Hobs, whose teams lost only to Santa Ana by one point to lose the conference championship, and then dropped a post-season game to San Francisco Jaycee at the Gold Dust Bowl at Vallejo, has lots of work in store for the anticipated 50 or 60 players expected to turn out for the clarion-call, to rip off the lid for the 1949 Panther football season.

The Panthers will naturally suffer from the loss of such players as Jerry Bell, Gino Bertolussi, Clyde Francisco, Jim Acosta, Fred Tomaseck, Kenny Imbach, Lincoln Perry, Johnny Witham, Frank Merrick, Lee Cleminson, Orland DeCiccio, and Austin Snyder. There isn't any team that could lose such top-flight talent without feeling it and hurting.

Returning lettermen, as far as is known now, will be Bernie Hoyos, Jerry Black, Ira Dils, Cookie Orsburn, Eddie Shipps, Bill DuFrene, Bob Lane, Ray Sholes, Mart Kramer and Dick Vetterli, for the back-field positions. Which means that the back field should have a pretty good start in returning lettermen alone, plus several backs from Chaffey High's Tiger's that fought their way to the semi-finals in the southern California playoff's. Just who will show up from the Tigers, in both the backfield and the line, is still problematical.

Returning players who earned their way as linesmen, will be spearheaded by big Aurelio Pruneri, the big-size tackle and Tony Dominick, the center, followed by Bob Garton, Steve Butters, Bob Davis, Dick Willis and Bob Mathis.

Coach Hobbs would have welcomed with open arms the two all-C.B.L. tackles that Coach Truscott Lindsey had on last year's Tigers, but Jim Vick entered Stanford, with Jerry Gonce now at S. C. What other linesmen from last year's Chaffey team will be wearing the Red and White of the Panthers this fall, remains to be seen.

As always, every one is interested in players coming into Chaffey College, from the outlaying areas. Sorry, but until the boys are registered, Hobbs is silent as a sphinx, but he no doubt is hoping for the best, along with the rest of us.

Thursday night, while being devoted mainly to suits being checked out and the above mentioned physical check-up's, Hobbs will probably have them throwing the ball around, and getting the "feel" back. Friday night will be the same thing all over for the players who couldn't make it Thursday night, with more ball tossing, kicking, and running.

Coach Hobbs plans on two-a-day workouts, starting Tuesday morning, with work starting at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. until school starts September 12. From then on the usual afternoon workout will take over

Hobbs will be ably assisted by Jack White, Theron Hodges, and Al Thomas.

Unknown Fighter Takes Decision From Ortiz

WASHINGTON (AP) — An unknown youngster, Jimmy Cooper, is the boxing world's newest luminary.

He scored a 10-round decision last night over World Bantamweight Champion Manuel Ortiz of El Centro, Calif., in a non-title bout.

Johnny Rogers, the champ's manager, said after the fight that he is willing to have Ortiz sign for a title fight against Cooper after a trip abroad. Oritz is scheduled to leave for Europe on September 3 for a six-week tour.

Not in Shape

"Manuel wasn't in top shape tonight," said Rogers, "but I don't want to take anything away from Cooper. He fought a brilliant fight and certainly earned a shot at the title."

Cooper's manager, Billy Banks, said he hoped to put his boy against Oritz if Cooper, who is normally a featherweight, can scale down to the 118-pound limit. In last night's fight, Cooper weighed 125½ pounds, while Oritz was 12 pounds overweight at 129.

It was obvious to ringsiders that the champion was badly out of condition. The younger Cooper continually jabbed at Ortiz's mid-section, where the champ had put on the extra poundage.

Cooper floored Ortiz in the fifth round, but the champ bounced back from the canvas.

Robinson Drops Fifteen Points

NEW YORK (AP) — Jackie Robinson's batting average may not be slipping as fast as you can say Jackie Robinson—but it has dropped fifteen points in the last two weeks.

The speedy Negro second baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers still is first in the National league however, with a clubbing percentage of .349 including Sunday's games.

That leaves him a slump margin of 21 points over second place Enos Slaughter of St. Louis, which just goes to show that Jackie was leading the batters by a country mile before he hurt his leg three weeks ago and began to slide down the scale.

Slaughter had .328, Stan Musial of the Cardinals with .321 moved past Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner into third place. Kiner, the league's home run monarch with 37 non stop licks, had .311.

Californians Win Model Plane Titles

DETROIT (AP)—Southern Californians walked away with many honors at the International model plane championships here.

Don Kennedy, Burbank, won second in the senior open class and third in the indoor cabin class. Leon Morris, Van Nuys, was third in the senior open class. The class A control line contest was won by Keith Pocock, Santa Ana, who also was third in the outdoor stick cabin class.

Jackie Robinson, speedy Brooklyn Dodger second baseman, slides into home plate to score as the ball (upper center) gets away from Chicago Cub Catcher Mickey Owen in the sixth inning of game at Ebbets Field, N. Y. Play started when Robinson doubled two teammates home and, as he rounded second, drew a throw from Pitcher Warren Hacker behind home plate. The throw went into centerfield and Jackie raced home ahead of the relay to Owen. The Dodgers won, 6 to 1.—AP Wirephoto.

Feller's Hurling and Tribe Twin Win Keeps 'em in Race

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Feller's "comeback" and Cleveland's extra-inning magic are keeping the Indians in the American league race.

Just when New York and Boston seemed set for a private stretch drive, the Indians elbowed in by snatching three straight from the Red Sox.

The Tribes success in thumping Boston in 13 of 19 starts could be the making of a second straight pennant. However, it also could pave the way to the flag for the Yankees.

Casey Stengel's men, shaken by the loss of Tommy Henrich, took new heart in the double Boston loss yesterday. The idle Yanks, in Kansas City for an exhibition, saw their lead mount to four full games. Cleveland is five and a half back.

Feller, now winner of 13 engineered the first Cleveland victory, 5-2. After the Indians tagged Earl Johnson for two runs in the first inning, Feller drove home a third in the second frame. It was his fourth victory over the Sox who have beaten him only once.

Extra Innings

The Tribe's amazing extra-inning skill enabled them to pull the second out of the loss column, 5-4, in 10 innings. Ted Williams' 35th homer with one on broke a 2-2 tie in the seventh but Cleveland tied the score in the ninth and nudged Joe Dobson for the decisive run in the tenth. It was the Indians' 16th overtime win in 17 games, four were Boston.

Mike Tresh, reserve catcher, who had not batted in a run all season, drove home the big score with a left field single. The Indians had men on second and third with two out when Manager Joe McCarthy ordered Dobson to pitch to Tresh.

After Tresh singled home the winning run, Williams mumbled, "sure glad to be leaving this town."

Detroit Wins

Detroit, trying desperately to make it a four-team battle, won its eighth straight by defeating Philadelphia, 4-3 in 10 innings.

Pat Mullin's single broke up the game. The fourth-place Tigers now are only eight games off the pace.

Dick Kokos singled with the bases loaded in the ninth for the St. Louis Browns' 2-1 edge over Washington in their battle to stay out of the cellar. Cliff Fannin was the winner over Mickey Harris.

Those St. Louis Cardinals came up with a big seven-run seventh inning at Boston, trouncing the Braves, 8-2 to protect their two and a half game lead over Brooklyn in the National.

Ron Northey clubbed a grand slam homer off Bill Voiselle in the big inning Al Brable posted his 14th victory.

Bums On Top

Brooklyn's Jack Banta matched Brazle's six-hitter as he went the route for the first time in his brief major league career, downing Pittsburgh, 5-1. Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson homered off reliefer Harry Gumbert in the eighth.

Larry Jansen earned win No. 15 for New York as the Giants climbed back even with the .500 mark by shading Cincinnati's Ken Raffensberger, 3-2. Hank Thompson's seventh inning homer was the margin of victory.

Homers by Stan Lopata and Andy Seminick in the eighth inning enabled the Phillies to top Chicago, 6-5, in a night game that drew only 2,802 to Shibe park. Reliefer Blix Donnelly was the winner over Bob Munclief.

Rapp In Lead

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —Earl Rapp of Oakland, hitting .356, tops Pacific Coast league batsmen.

Only 4 percentage points behind was his team-mate, Art Wilson.

Big Max West of San Diego still was the homerun king, with 52, and the leader in runs batted in, with 146.

Fresno Rockets Retain Crown

ALAMEDA, Calif. (AP)—The Fresno Rockets defeated the King City Licenses 5-0 last night to retain their California State girl's softball championship.

The Rockets will go to the National tournament at Portland, Ore., next month.

Virginia Busick, Rocket pitching star, struck out 13 and walked one. It was her second shutout of the King City club.

Tommy Henrich, New York Yankees star outfielder who was injured when he crashed into the right field wall at Comiskey Park, Chicago, in the opener of a twin bill with the White Sox, smiles as he looks over a newspaper in his bed at St. Luke's hospital. Henrich suffered a severe back injury, which hospital sources say will probably sideline him for the season.—AP Wirewhoto.

Upland Jewelers to Meet Elks Oldtimers in Classic

Softball fans tomorrow night will have an excellent and probably unparrelled experience of being able to compare the softball of today with the softball as played by the players of some umpteen years ago, as the Upland Jewelers will spuare off against the Nine Old Men from the Ontario Elks club.

Sport -O- graph
DON BENSON

There aren't half enough seats at Upland's Memorial Park to hold the crowd we think would be there every night, if the league were still playing, and we had this "warmish" weather.

The Upland League will have more and better teams trying to enter competition than ever before, next year, when the league draws up for the season's play. Why? Because the league, handled competently from all viewpoints, drew fans from all over, the players had a good time, and naturally the word gets out that the Upland League is tops, so everybody wants to play there too.

We know of several American Leaguers from the Reginas planning on playing in the league, and of one who starred for years in the Ontario League who is seriously thinking of forming a team and playing "just for the fun of it."

And in talking about former pitching greats in softball, we read an article in this paper about one Chuck Hugleman, and how he was fast becoming the greatest softball pitcher in these parts, and would soon make fans forget Glenn Callaway. We want to argue with our buddy-writer about that. We think Chuck is a good pitcher, and that he might become a great pitcher, but when the writer says that he will make fans forget the immortal Glenn Cab Callaway, he is on the wrong road, as far as I'm concerned. In fact, Hugleman has a mighty long road ahead of him to do that. He would have to be able to do so many phenominal things with a softball that it is small wonder that people told me what they thought about the article and then went on to tell about the games that Callaway had pitched and won. How he consistently fanned 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 batters. How he did this night after night, and not for just a season, but season after season.

Callaway had such control that he felt he had an off night if he walked one batter. One former teammate told me that he had seen Callaway have a three-ball and no-strikes count many a time, then throw three straight strikes. He also said that the thing that made Callaway such a great pitcher, on top of being so terrific with his pitches, was the attitude he always had.

The Jewelers will have to use all their youth and their speed to conquer the wily old masters, who are at present tuning up for their state Elk tournament for top softball honors, having already blasted the defending champs, Huntington Park, on two different occasions.

The Ontario Elks will feature the pitching of Glenn "Cab" Callaway, the old master of 'em all, on the mound, when he was in his prime. There has never been a pitcher like Callaway, as he was sturdy enough to last through 1934 till the war came along.

RETURNS HOME

Then after the Air Forces decided he had had enough, returned home, and took up his pitching chores for G. E. once again. He had his nights of supremacy, going 13 innings to shut out the San Berdoo 'Clubbers for a 1 to 0 win. He won other games, and lots of them, but he seemed to have lost interest.

This year, he toddled out to the mound for his service club, the Elks of Ontario, and on the team there is so many former players of the old National League, he forgot his obese size, and started winning games, as he has always did.

Catching the "Cab", is Howard "Thunder-Mug" Finley. He starred at Chaffey years ago and is at present leading the Elks at the plate, closely followed by Aubrey "Ob" Olinger, the perennial youngster at short-stop.

"DUFFIELD" AT THIRD

Then there is Johny Sagouspe, the leftfielder who played with G. E. in the playoffs at Wrigley Field, with Callaway. "Watty" Wattenberger, no longer able to get into shows for half-price since 1927, in right field, but can still swat the ball. Johnny Bondello, nick-named "Duffield" back in 1930 at Chaffey, will be at third, if Norris "Showboat" Hanna fails to make it. Hanna is one of the best third basemen we've ever seen, and he still retains a fair batting eye, besides being able to field bunts like mad.

At first base will be "Si" Sicosky, who is hitting the ball well. At second the Elks have either "Shorty" Wharton or Bud Engles, with Bud Hardy and the Regina star, Bunky Orr at the centerfield position.

LONG REMEMBERED

This game will be one to long remember, and don't forget that the game starts at 8 p.m. at the Upland Memorial Park.

Manager Odis Baker will start his ace, Richard Zuccato, on the mound, with Jim Evers on first, the hard-hitting Denis Luby on second, Harold Harris on third, with Len Hilke, who hits when it counts the most, at shortstop Bill Baker, Jack Roper, and Tommy Wilson will make up the outfield. Baker will be behind the plate as usual.

Idle Stars Gain Over Sacs As Bevos Win 6-0

By the Associated Press

Portland handed Sacramento a 6 to 0 licking in Monday night's only Pacific Coast League game, dropping the Solons four games behind leading Hollywood and a game behind second-place Oakland.

Bill Fleming, who relieved the ailing Roy Helser in the first inning, pitched the Beavers to victory. Helser started the game with a sore shoulder and gave away after pitching to three batters. Fleming took over and allowed only three hits the rest of the way.

Dick Wenner smacked a three-run homer in the sixth.

Tonight's card and probable pitchers:

Hollywood (Gordon Saltzberger 15-8) at San Francisco (Con Dempsey 16-11).

Oakland (Milo Candini 10-8) at Los Angeles (Don Watkins 7-6).

San Diego (Xavier Rescigno 10-11) at Sacramento (Bob Gillespie 13-12).

DIES IN CRASH

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A navy sky raider attack plane pilot—Lt. (j.g.) Robert S. Ming, 24—was killed when the plane crashed during bombing practice yesterday. He was training with Attack Squadron 115 from North Island Air Station. He leaves his widow and a 15-month-old son.

Red Hot Reno Nine Wins Again

By the Associated Press

Las Vegas, Sunset League leader, is the latest to be knocked over by Reno's mighty steamroller.

Reno went into the ninth inning last night on the short end of a 17 to 11 score, but scored six runs to tie the score. In the last of the tenth, two Reno batters were purpcsely passed to bring up Klucznik, Reno catcher with a skimpy .156 batting average, one of the league's lowest.

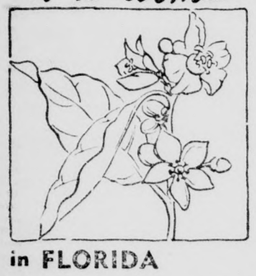

Klucznik slammed one off the centerfield board with the bases loaded—the score: Reno 18, Las Vegas 17. It was the 20th win in 22 games for Reno.

Mexicali, in second place, walloped El Centro 14 to 13 with Manny Serrano hitting a three-run homer in the first inning. Jim Estrada was top sticker for the losers, hitting four for six, including a homer.
